office: Nos. 25 and 27 Fourteenth Stree WÉDNESDAY MORNING, DECEMBER 22 Though few people can believe seriously in the possibility of tunnelling under the sea for a railway from England to France, the Southwestern Railway Company in England have been boring away several weeks at Dover. They are now tunnelling a gallery under the sea through the chalk beds, and the work is to be con-

THE future of the New York exposition Rufus Hatch says, now hangs on Vander-bilt's subscription. If he puts up $2,500, 000 in behalf of the New York Central the exhibition will have ample means, as the other transportation companies wil follow his example. In 1876 the Pennsyl vania Railroad_contributed $1,000,000 t the centennial and got back its money many times over in enlarged traffic, gain-ing a most acceptable increase in its gross and net receipts from passenger business in a year, 1876, when most railways were struggling with depleted treasuries.

Or late the question of tattooing (no branding) has been revived in the British army to act as a check against desertion and prevent the re-enlistment of bad characters. Some time ago, when the deser tions were at the rate of 5,000 a year (one artilleryman had enlisted and sold his kit eleven times in two years before he was detected), Sir James E. Alexander sub mitted to the Horse Guards a small instrument with a spring to tattoo instantane ously, and with hardly any pain, a man above the left wrist. Indian ink rubbed on the punctures left the impression of nest small Queen's crown, in blue, the size of a sixpence, and indellible.

We have just finished reading a little work entitled, "Lucille Vernon," or "the Church at Lansington," written by Rev. T. M. Meloy, of Chicago, formerly of Cadiz, Ohio. It is a short story, giving the trials, troubles and final triumph of young preacher, who has been called to the pastorate of the church, and who, by his good example and good works an "words in season," has finally conquered all the difficult people in his charge, an finds himself at the end of a few years very much beloved and respected. cille Vernon" becomes his wife in the course of time, and has by her firmness and affability and lovely Christian char acter been instrumental in affecting much of the good result. We can heartily rec ommend the work, and feel sure that if read many may be encouraged by it, and many ministers, young in the serivce, will find useful hints for action in tight places

LORD LANSDOWNE, a prominent English tority in connection with Irish affairs. It has come out that he exercised the mos complete feudal supervision over his tenants. His despotism forbade marriage; i forbade his tenants to harbor peasants who set at defiance his claims to say when they should mate; it punished those under him who even sheltered in an outhouse an unhappy couple. He pleaded that in thus wielding a mastership which was, if not legal, beyond all that law ever contemplates, he was benevolent. He was preventing improvident matches, which are the curse of Ireland, and providing against the settlement of too many people on estates which cannot bear additional burden. But it comes out that while thus taking care that the tenancies shall not be overburdened, additional weightupon them, in the shape of increased rents, has been his object. Three times in a quarter of a century have his rents been raised-once by 25 per cent at a leap, and this at the very time when he was trying, as he says, to prevent poverty by prevent ing undue multiplication. Furthermore, it appears that he has re-let to his tenants at 5 per cent the money loaned at 34 per cent by the government to landlords for the improvement of their lands. He thus oney out of a benevolence

A Popular Ministry.

Dr. John Hall in New York Observer.

A ministry that pleases everybody, especially in the Presbyterian church, may well suspect itself. Look at the doctrines we preach—human depravity, our Lord's true deity, the atonement on the cross, the personality and work of the Holy Ghost, the need by every man—the most amiable and cultivated—of being regenerated, the Bible the sole rule of faith, self-denial a part of true Chriatian living, retribution on the impenitent concurrent tribution on the impenitent concurren with natural immortality, the obligation of the Sabbath; and all this with a wor ship conspicuously plain and free from showy and meretricious decoration. Make all this palatable to "society," the "world,' everybody! No; this whole message tram ples on the pride of human intellect; it be-littles the boasted culture of the time, and it is, if understood, in direct opposition to to the "life" which we are being persuaded to import and servilely copy, from Paris. A LADY of Marianna, Fla., writes: "I A LADY of Marianna, Fla., writes: "I applied to a physician here for a prescription for Sick Headache, with which I have been sfilicted many years. He recommended Tatt's Pilis. They acted like a charm. I can now attend to my school without any pain or inconvenience. It is the best medicine I have ever taken. May you meet with the reward vou deserve."
